THE WELL-KNOWN ALLIANCE-MAN ON "FUTURES," "SPOTS," &C-

TEX HOUSE COMMITTEE of Agriculture also continued its hearings to-day. C. W. Macune, of the Farmers' Alliance, addressed the committee in favor of the anti-option bill. The bill, he said, did not interfere with the legitimate "future" dealer, but only with the dealer in "futures" who undertook to manipulate the market. Whenever the speculator could "horn" off the mill.men he could control the price of futures. Two years ago it looked as if a Liverpool man had "got the market where he wanted it," and for nearly two months "spots" were as high as "futures." The mills came into the market, and then the speculators could not control things. In his opinion there was no question but that the present system was bad for the producer. Before the crop was put into the ground the speculator fixed the price and wont off to Europe. When he got back he sold enough "futures" to keep the "spot" cotton at his price, and held it there from time to time. The broker's commissions on all the numerous transactions, he asserted, came out of the producer and the consumer. The Chicago members of the Board of Trade, he said, had asserted that the speculator paid these commissions, but that was absurd. The speculators did not "eat each other." They made money only by "catching suckers."

Mr. Lewis asked whether he thought the producer or the consumer should control the price.

Mr. Macune thought the producer should. He added that 8,000,000 bales was Mo over-Production.

Mr. Macune thought the producer should. He added that 8,000,000 bales was not over-production in the United States, when the world's annual consumption was 12,000,000 bales and India produced only 3,500,000 bales and Egypt 500,000 bales.

Mr. Macune asserted that one menace to the New York cotton market was the large amount of "dog-tails" or refuse cotton with which demands for specific delivery would be met, though a real delivery was not contemplated in New York. In New Orleans such deliveries could not be made, but he had been informed that this cotton, which was good for nothing at all, could be delivered in New York on a basis of comparison with good cotton. He admitted, however, that he did not know the rules of the New York exchange.

Tariff Bills to Be Favorably Reported.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

Washington, February 16.—The meeting of the Ways and Means Commit-[From Our Regular Correspondent.]

DISASTEGUS TO STATE INTERESTS.

Representative Jones has discovered that in a former Congress there was a bill presented and pushed that is identical with that now being urged by Mr. Lapham, of Rhode Island, to allow people to fish in waters that are under the jurisdiction of States. Hon, John Randolph Tucker, of Virginia, made a report to the House in opposition to the bill named, and took a strong State's rights position on the question. Mr. Jones believes that the effect of the Lapham bill, if passed, would be to turn the whole country loose on his district and the others in Virginia that have fishing interests. He will, as previously stated in this correspondence, go before the Fisheries Committee to-morrow to oppose the pending measure. DISASTROUS TO STATE INTERESTS.

Rev. William Morrison, S. J., Dead.
(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

Washington, D. C., February 16.—Rev. William Morrison, S. J., of Georgetown University, died there to-day. Rheumatism was the cause of death. Rev. Mr. Morrison was a native of Boston, Mass. He was born January 4. 1859. For twelve years he had been a member of the Society of Jesus, and for almost the entire has half of those years he was afflicted with rheumatism. His was one of the worst cases ever known in a young man. He was changed around a good deal in the hope that climatic influences might give retlef if not effect a cure. New Mexico was finally tried. There was no improvement to be noted there. From New Mexico Mr. Morrison went to Georgetown—to die. He was a patient as he was an intense and a continuous sufferer. THE FREE-SILVER RESOLUTION.

There was some lively filibustering in the House to-day, started by Mr. Tracey, of New York, and aided by Mr. Warner, of the same State. It seems that they are afraid of the free-silver resolution coming up, and they tried to forestall Mr. Riand and other members of the Coinage Committee who insist on meeting the issue in this Congress.

Mr. T. R. Covington, of Stevensburg, Va., one of the hard-working Democrats of his section, was among the visitors at the Capitol to-day.

Ex-Congressman Bowden, of Norfolk, was a visitor on the floor of the House to-day.

(By tolograph to the lispatch.)

Washington, February 16. — Senator Hansbrough, who to-day introduced in the senate a bill requiring the two principal street railroad combanies of this city to farmen all-night car service, said in an interview that he had worked for eleven years on a morning newspaper himself and knew what it meant to be compelled to walk home at 3 o'clock in the memory of his experience and his sympathy for newspaper-men and other night workers, he said, that caused him to introduce the bill.

NOT ENTITLED TO THE SEAT. The House Elections Committee, of which Offerrall is chairman, made the majority report to-day declaring that Mr. Stewart, the present Republican sitting member, is not entitled to a seat from the Twenty-fourth Fennsylvania District. the Master of Coremonies.

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)

New York, February 16.—Ten thousand people saw the boxing-match—if such it may be termed—at Madison Square Garden to-night, and ten thousand people were trampled on, bruised, and alubbed in trying to give up their $2 tickets. The crush at the door was something unprecedented, and an inadequate police force, even aided by rosewood clubs, freely used, was utterly insufficient to cope with it. This great crowd was attracted by the advertisements which for three weeks have announced that James Corbett, of California, would meet three men of his own class to-night. Joe Lannon, formerly John L. Sullivan's starring partner, was the only one of the three named present. William Muldoon, the wrestler, was master of ceremonies.

THE CONQUEROR OF GODFREY.

Then came Joe Lannen, of Providence, the conqueror of Godfrey. Before they shook hands, however, the police ordered Corbett and Lannon to put on six-ounce gloves and they had to do fo. In the first round Corbett, try as he would, could not reach Lannon with any torce. The second round was a repetition of the first, Lannon fighting on the defensive, and Corbett being unable to do much with him. He got in one heavy blow on Lannon's jaw, but that was about all. In the third round Corbett started in with a rush and forced Lannon all over the ring. Lannon did what he could to defend himself, but he was practically helpless, and when time was called and the bout was over he was very groggy.

Stratton and Privates Gerrold Stricton, Arthur Guy, Clagget Young, and William Young, of the Petersburg Grays perferred against them by the commanding officer of that company, Captain F. R. Lassiter. Taylor, and Culpepper, of Norfolk, and Captains Hooper and Salamonsky, of Portsmouth. The defendants are represented by Captain M. L. Spotts, of Richmond.

A motion to allow the public to witness the proceedings was defeated, and the large crowd of spectators who had gathered at the armory to witness the same and hear the evidence were disappointed. There are a large number of witnesses summoned, and it is the general impression that the court will six all night. This is the first court-martial that has been used in this city for several years, and in consequence of the high standing of the accused young gentlemen is exciting a great deal of interest in the city. ginian—Her Downward Career.

[By tolegraph to the Dispatch.]

Ngw Yonz, February 16.—Mrs, Minnie Nichols, 39 years of age, died to-day from the effects of chloroform administered by herself. The dead woman is said to have had an eventful history. She was once the wife of Henry Nichols, a wealthy Virginian, by whom she had six children. An appetite for intoxicating liquor overcame her, finally resulting in her deserting her family. Having an exceptionally good voice, she made a hit on the operatic stage, being at one time a member of the Duff Opera Company. Her irregular habits caused her to lose her position. Becoming addicted to the use of chloroform and opiates, she gradually sank lower and lower until after a long debauch the end came to-day.
